From Richmond, take Bells Line of Road (March Street) towards North Richmond.
At North Richmond go straight through the traffic lights, as if going on to Lithgow or Kurrajong.
About 1 km past the lights, going up the first hill, turn right into Crooked Lane.
Stay on the main part of this road (it changes name once or twice), for about three km until you get to a roundabout.
At the roundabout take the second turn, which is Kurmond Road, and almost immediately on your left is Tennyson Road.
Take Tennyson Road, for three kms, (you will pass the Fire station on your right).
Shortly after this, as you go up a slight hill, there is a road on your left called Griffins Road.
This looks like a private road, with old white rails on either side of the entrance.
Turn into Griffins Road, and go about 400 metres, to Alinjarra Road which is on your right.
Our place is at the end of Alinjarra Road, the drive to the stables being on the left off the cul-de-sac.
Be careful not to miss the turn off into Alinjarra Road, because Griffins Road goes down a steep hill into the bush.

From the West, turn off Bells Line of Road at Kurmond onto Kurmond Road, and follow this to the same first round-about.
